I would like to invite you all to Istanbul!

We are delighted to be bringing you to what is not only Turkey's most populous city but also its cultural and financial hub. Straddling the Bosphorus, Istanbul is a place where Europe and Asia meet and where East and West truly come together. We are in not only one of the largest cities in Europe but also in the world.

In 2020 Istanbul will be approximately 2680 years old so it goes without saying that this city is loaded with history. There will be many things for you to do in your off time. The cuisine is tops and the Turks are world-famous for their hospitality. And shopping galore!

While there you will be able to witness a modern, progressive Turkey that is making economic inroads throughout Europe, Central Asia and the Middle East. We in the logistics industry recognize the hub that Turkey has become, linked by ocean, air and overland transport networks that extend their reach locally and worldwide. Most of these transport networks find Istanbul as their main hub.

We would like this week to briefly make Istanbul the freight forwarding capital of the world. We will all play a part in this. While you are exploring what Istanbul has to offer we want that you can find what your colleagues within AiO also have to offer. We know you will gain and grow from this experience. This week we trust you will make new relationships and deepen older ones.

You will be glad to see Istanbul and we will be glad to see you there!

About Istanbul, Turkey.

Welcome to Istanbul, the city of the past, the present and the future. Istanbul not only joins continents, it also joins cultures and people. Close your eyes and imagine yourself in a city; the mysticism of the East and the modernity of the West, the constant time travel between past and the future, the balance of the traditional and the contemporary. Istanbul is one of the most visited and important places in the world, a central hub connecting Asia and Europe, blending the past and the future, bringing together cultures and people from all over the world. Visit Istanbul and feel the harmony of the opposites.
